TRIBAL LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We acknowledge that our location and our partners are on the homelands of Native peoples, who have lived in this region since time immemorial. We are grateful for the hospitality of the Chehalis, Chinook, Cowlitz, Nisqually, Quinault, Shoalwater Bay, Skokomish, and Squaxin Island Tribes and we express our deepest respect for these original and current caretakers of the region.

As an organization and community supporting health, we acknowledge our responsibility to establish and maintain relationships with these Tribes and Native peoples, in support of tribal sovereignty and the inclusion of their voices in our work. We also pledge that these relationships will consist of mutual trust, respect, and reciprocity.

WHO WE ARE

We are the Accountable Community of Health (ACH) serving the Central Western Washington region.

We serve everyone in the jurisdictions of Thurston, Mason, Lewis, Cowlitz, Pacific, Grays Harbor, and Wahkiakum counties and the sovereign nations of the Chehalis, Chinook, Cowlitz, Nisqually, Quinault, Shoalwater Bay, Skokomish, and Squaxin Island Tribes.

WHAT

ACHs are regional organizations that work with their communities on health care and social needs-related projects and activities.

WHY

Nine ACHs were established by the Health Care Authority to be neutral conveners, investors, and coordinating bodies between the health care delivery system and local communities.

At the heart of ACHs is an unwavering commitment to health equity. Our goal is to ensure that everyone, regardless of their background or circumstances, has the opportunity to live their healthiest life. This means addressing disparities and championing fairness and justice in health, social, behavioral, and community services.

HEALTH EQUITY IMPROVEMENT PLAN

Key themes and strategies

Connecting systems

When formal and informal systems of care are connected, coordinated services can address medical needs while also tackling other conditions that influence a person's ability to thrive, such as food access, housing, and transportation.

Fostering belonging

When organizations, neighbors, and local leaders collaborate to prioritize belonging, they create an environment where people are more engaged, supportive, and informed. This inclusivity builds trust and fosters a sense of shared responsibility for community well-being.

Empowering community-led solutions

Collective action recognizes that sustainable change doesn't happen in isolation. Instead, it emerges when communities come together to identify their challenges, pool resources, and co-design solutions.
